

Assessment Workshops

Spring 2024

scan QR to register on Zoom

Thursday, January 24, 2024 from 2pm-3pm

CLOSING THE LOOP: An Introduction to Institutional Effectiveness

Virtual Presentation by Taneika Thompson, MBA
Director of Institutional Effectiveness

Ms. Thompson, our inaugural Director of Institutional Effectiveness, delves into the purpose of institutional effectiveness and how this practice can support the Howard Annual Assessment Process in terms of building transparency and reporting on institutional successes.

Ms. Thompson will review some of the takeaways from AY 22-23 and offer some best practices for continuous improvement.

Tuesday, February 27, 2024 from 12pm-1pm

ASSESSMENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

Virtual Conversation between Alexis Laster, MS, GCP and Pavithra Suresh
(Institutional Assessment Coordinator)

Ms. Laster, a Student Affairs professional, and Ms. Suresh, the Institutional Assessment Coordinator, will discuss how administrative units that engage in student affairs and student development can utilize the Howard Annual Assessment Process to better support their efforts.

This conversation will cover how to approach assessment planning for administrative units, how to think about student learning outcomes, and how to best capture the work your unit is doing to support students.

scan QR to register on Zoom

scan QR to register on Zoom

Wednesday, March 13, 2024 from 11am-12pm

MAKING THE MOST OF COURSE EVALUATIONS

Virtual Presentation by Ms. Britt Spear-Rhymes, M.S.
Director of Assessment and Curriculum in the College of Dentistry

Ms. Spears-Rhymes, a seasoned Assessment professional and doctoral student in the Higher Education Leadership and Policy Studies program at Howard, will lead a conversation on how faculty can interpret course evaluation data, demystify student feedback, and implement curricular changes.